BETEKENISVOLLE KINDEROPVANG

Preparations

Especially for a newborn, familiarity contributes to a sense of security. By practicing at home before, you help your little one feel naturally at ease in our daycare.

Practice drinking from the bottle.

Practice sleeping alone in bed.

Practice different ways of comforting your baby when he or she is upset. Find a good balance between giving love, care, and attention, as well in picking up and carrying your baby during the day.
